CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

UMA

The University Management Association

Dear Corporate Representative,

We have an exciting opportunity to offer your company. The University Management Association is the McCombs School of Business's sole management association, and we are currently seeking sponsorship for the upcoming school year (2013-2014).

The University Management Association (UMA) is a student run organization that offers students insight into management skill and practices for their future careers. Management applies to all businesses, and the skill set that it offers can be beneficial in any career path. UMA assists in broadening students' networks at the McCombs School of Business and in their futures. UMA also has a functioning endowment, bringing scholarships to distinguished scholars in the management department.

Supporting the University Management Association is an excellent opportunity to host or sponsor events throughout the semester. We feel that both your company culture and its interest in the hard working students in McCombs will benefit both of our organizations.

Depending on the level of your company's support, you could receive any of these benefits:

- Future company nights
- Recognition on UMA's website
- Advertisement opportunities for internships and full-time job opportunities
- Recognition among both our members and the larger student body of McCombs.
- Priority choice of available event dates
- Fee waivers to future UMA events
- Company recognition on annual UMA t-shirts
- Optional private meetings with select students prior to Company nights

We believe that this opportunity can help forge a link between your company and prospective employees by supporting a strong student base. We look forward to further contact with your organization. Enclosed within this letter you will find a detailed list of sponsorship levels and contact information of our officers.

Sincerely,

Sarah Pye
