

Milton Millman
Chief Operating Officer-Merchant Banking
Division
Goldman Sachs & Co.
Southlake, TX

Milton Millman is chief operating officer of the Merchant Banking Division (MBD) with Goldman Sachs. He serves as secretary of the Firmwide Investment Policy Committee. Milton is also a member of the Firmwide Risk Committee, Physical Commodity Review Committee and Realty Management Executive Oversight Group.

Milton joined Goldman Sachs in 1994 at Archon Group, LP, the firm's real estate asset management subsidiary based in Dallas, Texas. He became vice president of international operations in 1998. During 1997 and 1998, Milton served as finance director and chief operating officer of Trillium Investment Group, an affiliate of Goldman Sachs in London. In 2000, he moved to Tokyo to serve as chief financial officer for the Asian Special Situations Group. Milton assumed additional oversight of the European and Americas Special Situations Groups in 2003. After living in Tokyo for five years, he relocated to New York to help manage the global business. Milton was named managing director in 2002 and partner in 2008.

Milton earned a BBA from The University of Texas at Austin in 1986.