CIBER Summer Study Abroad Programs Program Application Form

Responsibilities of Participation

I pledge to be a good representative of The University of Texas at Austin while participating in my study abroad program. I understand that my participation is contingent upon satisfying all conditions listed below:

- I have verified my eligibility, and I meet all course prerequisites for my study abroad program or will meet all course prerequisites prior to the beginning of my study abroad program.
- I will maintain good academic and disciplinary standing.
- I will attend the mandatory pre-departure orientation sessions.
- I understand that registration takes place through the University Extension office late in the spring semester and is required in order to participate. University Extension fees for CIBER courses are $400 per three-hour course for 2010 and the total registration cost for the CIBER program will be $800 for the two three-hour courses (six hours total).
- I understand that I must register for both CIBER courses and both courses are required for participation in the program.
- I understand that the UT-taught course must be taken for a grade and the partner school-taught course may be taken pass / fail only with the advance approval of my advisor.
- I understand that the program cost includes international health insurance, program books/course packets, accommodations during the program, cultural events, access to internet at the partner school, instruction by McCombs and partner school faculty, and the support of an on-site liaison.
- I understand that the program cost does not include University Extension registration fees, airfare to/from the program location, transportation costs on-site, passport and visa fees, food, or internet use off campus.
- I understand that the courses will take place at a partner school and the available resources might be different than the resources available to me at the University of Texas.
- I understand that all rules and policies governing student behavior on the University of Texas campus apply to CIBER summer study abroad programs.
- I understand that all rules and policies governing student behavior at the partner school campus apply to CIBER summer study abroad programs.
- I understand that I am expected to follow the regular schedule of classes and participate in them fully.
- I acknowledge that the University of Texas is not liable for my whereabouts or actions during travel not associated with the program.
- I understand that the University reserves the right to decline to accept or retain me in the program at any time should my actions or general behavior impede the operation of the program or the rights or welfare of any person in the judgment and discretion of University officials or their agents or designees. Similarly, if my conduct violates any policy or procedure of the University or of any host institution or entity, I understand that I may be required to leave the program at the sole discretion of the University's agents and representatives, and may be referred to the appropriate University officials for further disciplinary or other action. I understand that if I have been required to leave the program, the university will not refund any tuition or program costs that I have paid, and that I may be held liable for any scholarships, grants or loans awarded for the program.
- I understand that the University reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel the program or any aspect thereof prior to departure and, in the University's sole discretion, to cancel the Program or any aspect thereof after departure, requiring that all participants return to the United States, if the University determines or believes that any person is or will be in danger if the program or any aspect thereof is continued.

Student Code of Conduct

All students at The University of Texas at Austin are bound by the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities given in The General Information Catalog. Regulations and procedures regarding student discipline and conduct are set forth in Chapter 11 of the Institutional Rules. These institutional rules are intended to facilitate the educational process and to promote a safe, fair, and successful experience for students.

Students who participate in University of Texas at Austin study abroad programs are representatives of The University and their country for the duration of their time on the program. The student will conduct him/herself appropriately and respectfully, and understands that misconduct abroad can lead to withdrawal from the program and a return to the US at the student's own expense, with no refund. Upon the student's return to The University, the Office of the Dean of Students may also initiate disciplinary action.

Misconduct abroad refers to a student's actions that violate the standards set forth in this document, as well as conduct that jeopardizes the student's own welfare or that of fellow students and/or the program itself. Such actions include, but are not limited to, the following activities and behavior, from which the student agrees to refrain.

I, as a participant in a University of Texas at Austin study abroad program, agree to refrain from the following activities and behavior:

- Violence against others. This is defined as striking or doing any other physical harm to another.
- Verbal abuse of faculty, staff, individuals employed by or facilitating any aspect of the program, or students.
- Obstruction of UT or host university classes or obstruction of other UT or host university activities.
- Theft of or vandalism to property.
- Unauthorized entry to or use of UT or host university facilities or technology.
- Disorderly, disruptive, threatening or intimidating conduct, gestures or actions.
- Violations of residential guidelines and/or rules established by hosts, including, but not limited to, unauthorized overnight guests, excessive noise, rowdy conduct, and drunkenness.
- Criminal behavior or violation of local laws.
- Violation of any policies contained in this document, the Responsibilities of Participation document, and/or orientation materials or sessions.
- Failure to follow the guidelines, directives, timetables, and instructions of program staff or faculty members, including staff of the CIBER Office, UT faculty and staff abroad, and host institution faculty and staff.
- Falsification or alteration of academic or personal records, including, but not limited to, any unauthorized alteration of transcripts or grade reports, any verbal or written misrepresentation of student records.
- Academic dishonesty, which may include cheating or plagiarism.
- Self-endangerment, including involvement in activities or behavior that could result in personal harm, including, but not limited to, frequenting of dangerous places, association with criminals, repeated intoxication, etc.
- Violation of the alcohol and drug policies as set forth by the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System.

By signing below, I acknowledge/confirm that I have carefully read each of the statements and conditions set forth above in the Responsibilities of Participation and Code of Conduct.
