

Brent Williams
Managing Partner
Telic Ventures
Dallas, TX

Brent Williams is the Founder and a Managing Partner of Telic Ventures, a multi-asset class private investment firm. He also serves as a Senior Advisor with The Halifax Group. Prior to this role, Brent spent 25 years at The Halifax Group, where he was a Senior Partner, manager of the firm's Dallas office, and a member of both its Investment and Management Committees.

Halifax is a private equity investment firm focused on control equity investments in lower middle-market businesses, with over 75 acquisitions across the U.S., Europe, Asia, and Australia.

Before joining Halifax, Brent was a Director in PaineWebber's Merchant Banking Division, which he co-founded. He previously served as a Director in PaineWebber's Investment Banking Division, having joined from Smith Barney's Investment Banking Division. Earlier in his career, Brent was an Assistant Vice President in the Project Finance Department at The Sumitomo Bank.

Brent has served on numerous corporate and nonprofit boards. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Composite Energy Technologies, the President's Development Board at The University of Texas at Austin, the McCombs Dean's Advisory Council at the McCombs School of Business, and is a member of the Young Presidents' Organization.

His previous board roles include chairing or serving on the boards of BCI Burke, Golden State Overnight, Nutrition Physiology Corporation, PolyPipe, Maverick Healthcare, Universal Hospital Services, Animal Supply Company, and Taylor Logistics. He has also served on the Investment Committee for the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas Foundation and the Advisory Board for the Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst Center for Private Equity Finance at the McCombs School of Business.

Brent earned a B.A. from The University of Texas at Austin and an M.B.A. from Rice University.