

John Briscoe
Bristol Group Inc.
Houston, TX

John Briscoe has 35 years of experience in accounting and the energy sector. He began his career in 1981 with seven years in public accounting at KPMG and then EY, both in Corpus Christi. Mr. Briscoe then joined Sparkman Enterprises Inc., a oilfield services, and exploration and development company in Corpus Christi, as chief financial officer for three years. Moving to Houston in 1991, he joined Bariod Corporation, acquired by Dresser Industries Inc. in 1994, and was controller for Latin America when he left in 1997 to join Ferrellgas Partners LP, the largest energy liquids provider in the United States. He was vice president of accounting upon leaving in 2005 to join Transocean Ltd., the largest global offshore drilling contractor, where he was vice president and controller. He left in 2011 to join Weatherford International PLC., serving as senior vice president and chief financial officer for the fourth largest oilfield services provider with operations in over 120 countries, until late 2013. In mid 2014 he joined Bristow Group Inc. as senior vice president and chief financial officer until late 2015 when he retired. Bristow is the largest provider of global helicopter services to the energy industry.

Currently a part-time consultant, Mr. Bristow is an avid golfer and serves on several local boards and advisory committees in the Houston area.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, John graduated from The University of Texas at Austin with a BBA in Accounting in 1981.