

Peter Almond
Chief Financial Officer
T5 Data Centers
Atlanta, GA

Peter Almond serves the Chief Financial Officer of T5 Data Centers, which focuses on supporting enterprise and hyperscale customers with customized data center solutions. In this role, Peter manages the full scope of financial strategy and execution, including developing and implementing strategic financing solutions to support T5's growth as well as accurate financial reporting for company-wide decision making.

Prior to joining T5, Peter spent over 20 years in investment banking with Bank of America and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey. As a Managing Director in Leveraged Finance, Peter represented and advised both non-investment grade corporate and financial sponsor clients on raising debt capital from institutional investors and banks across the leveraged loan and high yield debt markets.

Peter graduated with a B.S. in Commerce from the University of Virginia's McIntire School of Commerce, with concentrations in Finance and International Business, and an MBA in Finance from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin. Peter and his wife Amber have three children and live in Atlanta, GA.
