

John C. McGuire Jr.

E-Mail: john.mcguire@mcombs.utexas.edu

Summary Qualifications: Over thirty-five years of pharmaceutical financial leadership experience, mostly in the manufacturing and supply chain sector. An engaged finance business partner to Operations leadership, including the development and achievement of annual and long-range operating plans, manufacturing network strategy development and execution, capex decision-making, and driving working capital and manufacturing cost reductions.

Also includes oversight responsibility for the plant finance teams and their outsourced partners, across a global manufacturing network, including planning and forecasting, financial accounting and reporting, SOX compliance and team development.

Industry work experience includes ten years as a site supply chain leader, responsible for procurement, warehousing, manufacturing scheduling and product distribution; and ten years of site IT oversight responsibility.

Very active leader in the development of finance colleagues, including the implementation of a corporate finance development rotational program for new college graduates. Engaged mentor to many. Long-time Junior Achievement of Central Texas board member and classroom volunteer.

Work Experience:

2019: Professional Consultant for Stericycle, a global leader in the proper disposal of medical waste and documents. Focus of engagement was developing a standard costing process this service provider.

2017: Managerial finance consultant to Life Science and pharmaceutical companies, with an emphasis in cost optimization of their manufacturing and supply operations.

2017 to Present: Lecturer in Dept. of Accounting, McCombs School of Business, UT-Austin

2016: Finance Director, Pfizer PGS Sterile Injectables Unit with eight manufacturing sites, $4B in sales, $2B in COGS and 12K colleagues.

2009-2015: Finance Director, Hospira Manufacturing Operations: twelve manufacturing sites, $3B in sales, $1.5B in COGS and 10K colleagues. Pfizer acquired Hospira in 2015.

1992-2008: Finance Director, Abbott/Hospira Austin Texas Plant: $0.5B in sales, $0.3B in COGS, 1.5K colleagues. Abbott spun off its hospital products business into Hospira in 2004.

1994-2004: Supply Chain Director, Abbott/Hospira Austin Texas plant.

1981-1991: Held a series of roles leading to finance leadership supporting site manufacturing, commercial sales and marketing, and R&D organizations. Spent six years in Puerto Rico and started up a plant in the Dominican Republic.

1979-1980: Principles of Accounting Lab Instructor, Lansing Community College. Responsible for teaching curriculum, grading exams and reviewing results with students.

Education: BA Accounting, Michigan State University December 1980

Certification: Illinois CPA February, 1982. Certificate No. 31,142