

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN FINANCE

Developing the finance leaders of the future—with a combination of quantitative and qualitative skills—who can participate in complex decision making and strategy formulation.

CLASS OF 2025 PROFILE

CLASS STATS

Enrollment	73
Female	33%
Male	67%
Texas Resident	80%
Non-Texas Resident	20%
Average GMAT	725
Average GRE (V+Q)	324

GMAT/GRE tests are optional

UNDERGRAD MAJORS

Business	10%
Economics	26%
Engineering	10%
Mathematics/Science	23%
Other	31%

EMPLOYMENT REPORT SUMMARY | CLASS OF 2023

SALARY

Average Salary	$82,198
Maximum Salary	$110,000
Median Salary	$81,900

EMPLOYMENT RATE

of Job Seeking Students	58
% Received 1st Offer by Graduation	83%
% Received 1st Offer Within 6 Months	93%

RECRUITING EMPLOYERS

Deloitte
KPMG
Alvarez & Marsal
Ernst & Young
Charles Schwab

SELECT JOB TITLES

Financial Analyst
Financial Modeling Analyst
Business Valuation Analyst
Valuation Consultant
Energy Investment Banking Analyst

PROGRAM STATS

Rank in U.S.

#3

Financial Times

MSF Alumni

676

Average Work Experience

0.9 YR

38% of Current Cohort With Work Experience

Current Class Size

73

TECHNICAL DEPTH COMBINED WITH BUSINESS ACUMEN THE TEXAS MSF PROGRAM GAVE ME AN EXPANSIVE OVERVIEW OF THE INDUSTRY, ROBUST KNOWLEDGE OF THE EQUITY AND BOND MARKETS, TEAM BUILDING SKILLS THROUGH GROUP PROJECTS, AND OPPORTUNITIES TO PRESENT TO MY PEERS, WHICH ARE ALL SKILLS I USE IN MY DAY-TO- DAY ROLE.

Ashley Ilardo, Regional Director, Dimensional Fund Advisors, MSF '16