Texas McCombs MBA Recruiting Guidelines

Fall 2020

To create consistency across organizations that recruit at the McCombs School of Business and to ensure your support of our academic mission, McCombs Career Management and Corporate Relations (CMCR) requests your agreement to abide by the spirit of the following guidelines. Please communicate these guidelines to all professionals involved in recruiting within your organization. In addition, acknowledgement of UT’s Equal Employment Opportunity Policy is required to participate in McCombs-facilitated recruiting, and opportunities must align with the McCombs Recruiting Requirements (i.e. position type, timing of start dates, and compensation).

Please note, all on-campus recruiting activities for the fall 2020 semester will be virtual due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This includes information sessions, interviews, office hours, workshops, case prep, etc.

Interviews

- Facilitated virtual interviewing of graduating MBA students (for full-time roles) begins Monday, September 21, 2020. School-facilitated interviewing of MBA internship candidates (first year students in our Full-Time Program) begins in January.
- We ask employers to offer a virtual option to accommodate students who are unable for any reason to attend an in-person interview.
- If an employer’s second round interview conflicts with a student’s prior academic obligation, employers are strongly encouraged to offer the student an alternative interview date or time without negative consequence.
- Interviews requiring a significant time commitment are encouraged to be held on Fridays so that students will not miss class. We have reduced the academic conflicts on most Fridays for Full-Time MBA students. Working Professional MBA Students in our Houston and DFW Programs have class every other Friday evening.
- Interviews should not be scheduled during the final exam period, which is December 7-16 for graduating MBAs.

Offers

- All offers must be in writing. Written offers are defined as electronic or hard copies.
- The date on the written offer letter determines the start of the offer timeline.

Exploding Offers

- McCombs CMCR prohibits “exploding offers.”
- An exploding offer requires a student to accept a job offer within a very short period of time or face having the offer rescinded or base salary diminished. This places undue pressure on a student and, as such, is viewed as inappropriate conduct. Adhering to the MBA offer guidelines allows students a sufficient consideration period, which improves retention for employers.
- Requiring a verbal acceptance in order to receive a written offer is considered an “exploding offer.”
MBA Fall Offer Timelines

- Full-time Offers: Offers for full-time employment made in the fall semester should remain open until December 7 or a minimum of three weeks after the date of the offer, whichever is later.

- Internship to Full-time Offers: Offers made to students who have completed a summer internship with your company should remain open until December 7 or a minimum of three weeks after the date of the written employment offer, whichever is later.

- Internship Offers: Companies that recruit first year MBA students for internships on an accelerated timeline prior to the start of the spring semester (i.e., through national and diversity conferences) should allow those internship offers to remain open until February 15 in alignment with our spring (internship) recruiting timelines.

Additional Employer Expectations and Accountability

- Employers that misrepresent employment opportunities to students will risk losing access to University recruiting resources.

- We strongly discourage any employer from withdrawing offers or altering base compensation. If you must rescind an offer, please contact us prior to that action so we can assist you in this difficult situation.

- We request that employers notify us once students have accepted an offer.

- The University of Texas at Austin cannot indemnify employers from employment liability.

Student Accountability

- All acceptances must be in writing. Acceptances may occur in either electronic or hard copy.

- Students sign and are expected to abide by our MBA Recruiting Contract which includes expectations surrounding interview cancellations, no-shows, offer acceptances and more. If a student accepts an offer of employment and later reneges on the acceptance, please notify us. We recognize the importance of integrity in accepting an offer and want the opportunity to follow up with the candidate. CMCR has provisions to penalize students and remove recruiting privileges when these circumstances arise.

- CMCR encourages students to discuss offers and timelines with employers to find a reasonable compromise to potential conflict. If necessary, we are willing to facilitate a meeting to determine a mutually agreeable solution.
