Dallas, TX

Jennifer (Hunt) Crosby is a Vice President and Banker in the Dallas office of J.P. Morgan Private Bank. Jenny works closely with successful individuals who seek a source of trusted guidance to help transform hard work into a meaningful legacy. She serves as a dedicated advocate to guide them in making sophisticated financial decisions in a bespoke and tax-aware manner.

With a decade of professional experience, Jenny has spent the past five years focused on sophisticated investments for ultra-high-net-worth clients. In that time, she has built a reputation for her ability to scan the financial landscape and help clients navigate changing economic environments. Before joining J.P. Morgan, she was at Goldman Sachs, as a Private Wealth Advisor.

Jenny, originally from Michigan, earned a B.S. from Michigan State University. She received an M.B.A. from the McCombs School of Business, with a concentration in Finance and Investment Management. During her time at McCombs, Jenny was an active member in Graduate Women in Business and MBA Wellness Collective.

Jenny and her husband—a fellow Longhorn—are raising their young son, Christopher. She is a member of the Dallas Junior League. Jenny was a Top 20 Michigan-ranked golfer in high school and continues her love of the sport.
