

Neha Patel
Partner-in-Charge, IT Advisory Services
Weaver
Dallas, TX

Neha leads the IT Advisory Services group at Weaver, ranked as the top 35 public accounting firm in the U.S. and the #1 largest independent CPA firm in the Southwest. Prior to joining Weaver in 2009, Neha spent nearly five years within the Ernst & Young, LLP (EY), where she focused on performing IT general controls evaluations for global energy clients and performing attestations over large financial service organizations. Neha specializes in IT aspects of governance, risk and compliance, including System and Organization Controls (SOC) audits, SOX/FDICIA testing and other technology consulting services. A Certified Public Accountant in Texas, Neha graduated from The University of Texas at Austin in 2003 with a BBA in Accounting, a minor in Management Information Systems and an MPA degree. While in the accounting program at UT, Neha met her husband, Rootvik, who was a finance major at McCombs. They currently reside in Coppell, Texas, with their twins. Neha continues to be impressed with the talent at McCombs and is excited to give back to the McCombs School of Business in her new role on the BBA Advisory Board.
